

Deborah Leaner

Dynamic Motivational Speaker • Preacher • Spiritual Life Coach

Dedicated to Helping Women, Youth and Families Reach Their Full Purpose in God

Deborah Leaner is a dynamic, energizing motivational speaker, preacher, and Spiritual Life Coach. Her exceptional gift to teach, lead, and speak empowers and inspires others to move forward and make the tough choices that life sometimes brings. She is a charismatic speaker at schools, and has been a key note speaker at women's conferences, churches, and civic organizations though out the United States.

As a Spiritual Life Coach, hundreds of people have sought after her direction. She empowers her clients to find direction and focus in life as they seek to achieve their goals.

She is the Founder and Chief Executive Officer of Deborah Leaner Ministries (DLM). The mission of DLM is to equip, restore, and transform women through the word of God. Ms. Leaner also founded Divine Discipleship for Sisters (DDS) in 2003, a discipleship ministry that meets the needs of the local church in helping them to equip, transform, and restore women by helping them to develop a more intimate relationship with Jesus Christ. She is the Editor and Chief of "Beauty for Ashes" (BFA) which is a Christian E-magazine targeted to reach individuals and families. The arms of BFA reach far and wide; even as far as Iraq to provide emotional healing for those in need.

In 2004, she co-authored a four (4) book series entitled "New in Him" designed to give individuals the fundamental principles of the Gospel. The "New in Him" curriculum is currently in many churches through out the Washington, D.C. Metropolitan Area. Ms. Leaner's new book entitled "Make Your Mouth a Ministry" expected to be released in March 2008; will empower every human being to speak life in to their circle of influence through the power of one's own story and the word of God.

Ms. Leaner along with her husband, Tony, a Deacon and Minister in Training founded The Korey "Alex" Leaner (KAL) Foundation after the loss of their son in 2005. The mission of The KAL Foundation is to identify and develop personal strengths in at-risk youth in order to build self-confidence, character, and to awaken untapped personal potential. The Foundation offers life changing lessons that equip and nurture youth for every stage of life. The headquarters of DLM and The KAL Foundation are located in Prince George's County. Both organizations also provide community outreach services.

Ms. Leaner has a Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education, with a minor in Special Education from Florida A&M University; a Master of Arts in Counseling and Guidance from Atlanta University; and has completed post-graduate studies at the George Washington University toward a second master's degree in Emotional Disabilities. She has taken numerous Biblical courses throughout the United States. She desires to work toward a Ph.D. in Spiritual Counseling.

Ms. Leaner is a wife and after the loss of her son, still considers herself the mother of many spiritual children. She has had a successful business career both as an entrepreneur and in corporate America. She is a powerful, life-changing speaker, preacher, leader, and teacher. Her true passion is nurturing women into their destiny and purpose in God.

As a Minister in Training, Founder and CEO of DLM and The KAL Foundation, Ms. Leaner is confident that she is walking in the destiny that God has set before her. The table God prepared through her to serve daily has transformed the lives of many women, children, and families. Ms. Leaner continues to dedicate herself to "helping women, youth, and families ..." reach their full purpose in God.

Ms. Leaner is available for conferences, retreats,
Workshops, leadership training and to preach the word of God.

Deborah Leaner Ministries/The Korey "Alex" Leaner Foundation

Mailing Address: 12138 Central Avenue, Suite 197, Mitchellville, MD 20721

Office Location: 3204 Brinkley Road, Temple Hills, MD 20748

Tel: (301) 505-1545/1546

Email: info@deborahleanerministries.org

Website(s): www.deborahleanerministries.org, www.thekalfoundation.org www.beautyforasheshmagazine.com